The Carriageworks Theatre is ready to welcome you to a new season of discovery this Spring & Summer.

In the heart of Leeds, within the historic Electric Press on Millennium Square, our stages will come alive with bold new voices, much-loved classics, laugh-out-loud comedy, and unforgettable family adventures. Take the whole family on a wild adventure in The Dinosaur that Pooped a Rock Show and Dinosaurs Live!, or join the fun of There's a Snake in My School!. Beloved favourites return too, from Julia Donaldson's Zog and The Gruffalo's Child to the enchanting magic of The Snow Queen. There's a world of joy waiting to be discovered by you and your little ones.

For theatre lovers, Stephen Sondheim's masterpiece Sunday in the Park with George takes centre stage, while 1984 offers a gripping glimpse into a dystopian world, both presented by members of Leeds Community Arts Network.

Adventurers won't want to miss our inspiring line-up of extraordinary stories, from the Banff Mountain Film Festival to daring tales with Leo Houlding: Exposed, endurance runner Damian Hall: Running Forever, and mountaineer Adriana Brownlee: Death Zone.

And for those looking for laughs, the season is bursting with comedy, from the riotous energy of Kate Butch: Choose Your Own Cabaret to the chaotic hilarity of Colosseum of Chaos, and the heartfelt humour of Hasbian.

We can't wait to welcome you.

Whilst we encourage our audiences to travel to the theatre via public transport, we realise this is not always possible. Our nearest car parks are The Light and Woodhouse Lane Car Park. If attending with friends, please consider car sharing to help us to reduce our carbon footprint.

The nearest blue badge parking can be found on Cookridge Street, Alexander Street and St Anne's Street.
